WEEKEND SCHEDULE

Ithaca College
Dear Alumni,

I want to take this opportunity to welcome you and your guests back to Ithaca College for Alumni Weekend. I am glad that you are able to experience our campus firsthand when it is so alive with the buzz of an academic year.

The wide variety of gatherings and activities happening this weekend is a wonderful reflection of the diversity of both our alumni and our campus community. I like to tell our students that they have a network of 60,000 alumni who stand behind them, and this weekend is living proof of that powerful connection.

During my Convocation address to new students this August, I described the Ithaca College experience as “an open-ended voyage of discovery whose destination and routes are both matters of your own choosing.” As alumni, you are farther along on that voyage, and have much wisdom to offer our students. In that vein, I hope you will take a moment to seek out a few students, see IC through their eyes, and help them see the world through yours.

Again, welcome back to campus. I hope your weekend is an enjoyable and memorable one.

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Rochon
President
Dear Alumni,

I’m delighted to welcome you back to campus. I’m looking forward to speaking with you and your family and guests during the weekend, and hearing your favorite IC memories as well as your reactions to the campus of today. It’s also a perfect time for me and my dedicated team to hear how the Ithaca College Alumni Association can best serve you.

The alumni association has rolled out some innovative benefits and services this year—including an expanded slate of regional events, a webinar series on careers and life stages, a one-on-one online mentoring program that debuts in just a few weeks, even a trip to Iceland next February. You can find details about all these programs at our website, alumni.ithaca.edu.

I hope you have a terrific time in Ithaca this weekend—and I hope your connection with Ithaca College remains vibrant long after the exhilaration of Alumni Weekend fades. Please don’t hesitate to drop me a note at alumni@ithaca.edu with any questions or suggestions.

Welcome home!

Carrie Cadwell Brown
Executive Director
Alumni Relations
